If You fail to make a fair presentation of the risk including failing to disclose or misrepresenting a material fact, or disclosing material facts to Us in a way which is not clear and accessible:

We may avoid this Policy and refuse all claims where:

- (a) such failure was deliberate or reckless; or

Should We avoid this Policy We:

Where We elect to proportionately reduce the amount payable in respect of a claim, We will pay a percentage of the claim, the percentage being calculated by comparing the premium which You actually paid with the premium which We would have charged had You made a fair presentation of the risk. For example, if the premium which You actually paid is 70% of the premium We would have charged, We will only pay 70% of any claim.

Where this Policy provides benefits to individuals who would, if they had taken out similar insurance in their own name, have done so for purposes wholly or mainly unconnected with their trade, business or profession, We will not rely on this condition if the failure to make a fair presentation of the risk concerns only facts or information which relate to that particular individual, unless the individual (or You on their behalf) makes a careless misrepresentation, in which case We may rely on this condition as against that particular individual as if a separate insurance contract had been issued to them leaving the remainder of the Policy unaffected.
